

A word of encouragement came to me early this morning:

“So shall they fear the name of the Lord from the West, and His glory from the rising of the Sun.

When the enemy comes in, LIKE A FLOOD the Spirit of the Lord will raise up a standard against him.”

– Isaiah 59:19

Often, Christians quote this with the enemy being the flood. But more accurate to the original Hebrew, the flood is the offensive response from the Lord. So the comma placement really makes a difference!

No political candidate can bring the resurrection of faith needed to bring healing to any country in distress. That power belongs to the Spirit of God.

Let's focus on Who He is today as we praise Him for being the all-powerful One. Let's agree that He alone is the same yesterday, today, and forever.

Here are some lyrics built on the eternal truth of Isaiah 59:19.

With blessings,

LIKE A FLOOD

Like a flood
The Spirit of the Lord will arise,
Like a flood
The righteousness of God will prevail
Pushing back
And scattering the workings of hell
With a flood of the love of the Lord.

Mighty One, Holy One
Lead us in the battle
Let our praise open up floodgates of power Mighty
One, Holy One
You alone are worthy
By your love, you change our world.

Lord Almighty, King of Kings
Lord of Lords and Prince of Peace
Worthy of our adoration,
Worthy of all praise.
Open hearts we bring before you
Flood us with your love again
Resurrection, life eternal
Comes from your great love.

Like a flood
The Spirit of the Lord will arise,
Like a flood
The righteousness of God will prevail
Pushing back
And scattering the workings of hell
With a flood of the love of the Lord.
